In the words of our clients

"...Our international sales have grown faster and more jobs have been created from our relationship with the Little Rock USEAC."

-- Jason Risner, VP of Sales & Marketing, Alliance Rubber Company | Hot Springs, AR

"The assistance I received from the U.S. Commercial Service and was invaluable. James Aardappel - CS Little Rock was able to connect me with Dina Molaison - CS Atlanta, who took the time to educate me. She was able to highlight specific information I needed such as obtaining the proper paperwork, licensing requirements, etc. for my international business pursuits. The contacts that I made through this program are assets that will help me grow my global business in a legal, compliant and safe way. I am grateful that this type of help is available for woman-owned small businesses in our nation."

-- Jennifer Simpson, S&J Military International | Texarkana, AR

"Thank you for the company profile. It was very thorough and provided valuable insight about the company and their capabilities."

-- Mike Akin, President, Akin Complete Furniture | Monticello, AR
